Main Line Branch Seeks $350,000 For War Fund

More than 400 workers and guests attended the annual luncheon of the Main Line Branch, American Red Cross, marking the opening of the 1943 War Fund drive Tuesday at the War Fund Canteen, Suburban Square, Ardmore.

Principal speaker at the luncheon was Robert E. Bondy, national administrator of services to the armed forces who told of the present work being done for servicemen and the program planned for 1943 and 1944.

Bondy, who came from Washington where he is attached to the National Red Cross headquarters, explained the need for the 125,000,000 sought this year by the Red Cross.

"In every department," he said, "the Red Cross is geared for wartime service."

The value of blood plasma to the man in service was told by Naval Air Cadet John G. Moffat who received two transfusions of blood plasma last year after an airplane accident near Naval Hospital, Philadelphia.

Chairman of the meeting was Frederick W. Dreher, head of the War Fund drive on the Main Line. Following invocation by Dr. Joseph Fort Newton of the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, introductory remarks were made by Joseph L. Eastwick, chairman of the committee on branches of the S. E. Penna. Chapter. Benediction was given by the Rev. Eugene A. Kelly of St. Colman's Church, Ardmore.

Expect Great Increase In Collections For Red Cross Drive

Narberth's Red Cross drive, under the sponsorship of the Junior Women's Community Club, will be headed this year by Mrs. William J. Cahill, 505 Kenilworth rd., Merion, as major.

"We expect a very substantial increase over last year's collections," says Mrs. Cahill. "I think everyone realizes how greatly increased are the responsibilities of the American Red Cross with so many of our men in the armed services and so many more continually being called up."

Mrs. Cahill is assisted by the following neighborhood captains:

Mrs. George Alberts, Mrs. Jean Dickie, Mrs. R. Brownell, Mrs. Dorothy Patin, Mrs. Louise Bottoms, Mrs. Marie Cusack, Mrs. Mary Merkel, Mrs. Ingeborg Bobb, Mrs. Mary Cleer and Mrs. Jean George.

Not all the captains have a sufficient number of workers to cover properly their assigned territory. Women who can give some time to this are urged to call Mrs. Cahill or the captain in their neighborhood.

Hospitals Receive Payments

More than $6,000,000 has been paid to hospitals for care rendered Blue Cross subscribers, the Associated Hospital Service has announced. Over 100,000 hospital bills are included in the payments.

Bryn Mawr Hospital has received $191,546.00 from the Blue Cross on the basis of the number of days of care rendered subscribers. Delaware County Hospital, Drexel Hill, has received $89,011.45, while Montgomery Hospital, Norristown received $47,189.72.

These hospitals are among 66 member hospitals in southeastern Pennsylvania and south Jersey.

Has Any Other Community More Reason To Fulfill Its Quota Than This One?

It goes without saying that Narberth's contribution to the Red Cross in this epochal year must and shall exceed any previous record made by this community of impressive achievement.

From our homes more than 300 of our young men have gone forth to serve and wherever American forces face the foe, on the Seven Seas or in the remote corners of the earth, there will be found boys from this Borough in the thick of the gallant fight... and already vast emotions stir us because three of our lads have made the supreme sacrifice for the country's cause.

Aye, amazing reflection it is that this town of 5,000 souls is directly represented by its own sons in every sector where the war-drums beat, whether it is Africa, Australia, New Guinea, New Zealand, the far-flung islands of the Pacific or on the ships that sail the myriad ocean lanes or the wide sweeps of the eternal skies.

And what consolation it brings when we know that wherever they are, and whatever peril besets them, the Red Cross is also there, to minister unto them, to encourage and inspire them, to help dispel the shadows that must at times engulf home boys away from home... and, should casualty come, to bind their wounds with that warm solicitude only begotten of American kinship and camaraderie.

Surely, such high venture, at this interval of majestic enterprise for Freedom's sake, puts into the discard any continuance of the dollar donations of yester-peaceful-days and calls in clarion note for the utmost best we all can do.

Hence when the young ladies go amongst us, as they will from door to door, there must be no casual acceptance of them as mere collectors, but instead let the exalted nature of their errand of gentle Mercy be deeply comprehended so that our contributions may generously correspond with the extraordinary needs of a gigantic occasion.

Also, in this year of all years, it is not at all untoward, nor requesting more than the insistent facts warrant, when it is suggested that whatever may have been previously given, in the shops and offices of city and elsewhere, shall be duplicated by local residents in this local endeavor... for here it is we all live and this unbounded heart-offering we seek to make shall be Narberth's affectionate signal to its absent men that our concern for them is all-encompassing and is as grandly unmeasured as is their own valiant effort in our behalf.

The sum set for Red Cross' 1943 requirements is $125,000,000, approximately a dollar for every man, woman and child in America.. That would mean Narberth should contribute about $5,000.. Has any other community any more reason to fulfill its quota than we have... and even with taxes and war-bonds and war-chests and all the other extra expenses inescapably linked with this crucial period, is it too much to expect that our 1,500 households will not average much less than $5 each?

There can be—will be—only one answer—we will give at a rate which will overwhelmingly exceed any previous effort, for that's the kind of town this is and our gratitude should be great because of it.

And must I be giving—
Again and again?

Oh, no, said the Angel

(And his glance pierced me thro'),

Just give 'til the Master

Stops giving to YOU.

We Get Word That More Boxes Have Arrived In "Camel Country"

Narberth's Christmas Gifts Reach Far-Off Points In A-I Shape

There is a business maxim that only one paper out of every hundred filed will ever be called for again, but not knowing which one that will be, the entire hundred must be put away with painstaking care.

In like manner, the Christmas Committee was aware that some of the boxes sent to domestic camps would ultimately be forwarded overseas, due to the men being transferred in the interim of mailing.

Hence every package which left Narberth was fortified in a manner which was calculated to assure its safe arrival anywhere on the earth and the value of the precaution is again attested by this week's letters, some of them coming from the "Dark Continent" and acknowledging receipt of boxes which were originally sent to location in the United States.

The lesson should be particularly impressive to the younger people on the committee, some of whom were convinced that it was not necessary to so carefully signpost-strap with steel bands (calling for considerable time and expert labor) every one of the several hundred cartons, irrespective of their addresses.

Otherwise, the dilemma would have been invited of some of the boxes arriving at the yonder points (where the encouragement they convey is most needed) in disorderly shape, with many of the articles missing, and what a grievous pity that would be.

As it is, a perfect score has been recorded and that happy consummation brings extra joy to all concerned.

Here are some more of the grand letters which warrant gold pages in the Borough Book:

Your Christmas package has just reached me after a rather circuitous route due to what Special Orders would call "exigencies of the service."

It was like having Christmas Day all over again, and I thought I'd never reach the bottom of the box. To those who selected the many gifts I can only say that it certainly must have taken much thought and ingenuity to choose everything that would appeal to and be of use to the man in the field. As for the packing, suffice it to say that in spite of the terrific

Store Lessons in Point Rationing Volunteers Ready to Instruct Customers, Says Harman

Trained volunteers, who will show customers how to shop with their new point rationing books right at the counters in grocery and food stores, will give their services to any merchant here who requests this help, H. M. Harman, chairman of the Ardmore War Price and Rationing Board, announced today.

This in-the-store plan of having explainers make clear any puzzling details of point rationing has been arranged through the cooperation of the Office of Civilian Defense and twenty-one national service and fraternal organizations with the rationing boards of the country, Mr. Harman explained.

"Buying many of our foods with point rationing coupons will doubtless soon become second nature to us," the Chairman of the Ardmore War Price and Rationing Board said. "But it may have a few quirks that we don't quite understand at first. Just like when we first learned to make change with pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters."

"It will probably only take a few days for us to get the hang of buying foods with point coupons, as well as money. During this brief early period of the rationing we want to help the shoppers and the merchants to complete purchases of the rationed foods in the shortest possible time and with the least confusion."

Lapel Tags Delayed

The start of the Red Cross War Fund Drive has announced that there has been a delay in receiving all of the Red Cross lapel tags, because the factory where they were made was commandeered by the government for war work. The tags are expected to arrive soon.

Bob Squier's Letter

It will be noted the service men frequently refer to the letter written by young Bob Squier and which won him the War Bond in the school contest.

A printed copy of the letter as it accompanied the gift boxes is available to any one who phones Our Town for it.

Also there are some extra copies of the photographs which were included in the packages, also free for the asking.

beating received because of the many handlings, the contents remained perfectly intact.

This Headquarters has recently been moved to one of the largest and most modern cities in this part of the world. But what a conglomeration of old and new and of the East vs. West it is! I wonder how Mr. Supple would like to handle a water system that consisted of streams diverted down the gutters of the main streets? And I couldn't help but laugh to myself the other day trying to picture Charlie Grivin ironing out a traffic tie-up between a camel caravan and a couple of "G. I." trucks. But with all these strange and interesting surroundings, I'd sure like to hear that man holler, "PAOLI LOCAL, FIRST STOP NARBERTH!"

I wish that I were able to express my gratitude to you in the simple and "from the heart" way that Bob Squier put it across. These are the things that make you glad and proud that you come from Narberth.

Dick Staley

Your Christmas package was received while I was a hospital patient. It certainly was a most pleasant surprise and I would like to thank everyone very much. The other fellows here thought it was swell and said I must come from a town of thoughtful people and they wondered why their people hadn't done something of the same kind. I am sure the rest of the Narberth

Urges Victory Gardens Throughout Montgomery County This Summer

The inauguration of a "Victory Garden" program in every community of Montgomery County was urged this week by Harold Graham, chairman of the Montgomery County Victory Garden Committee of the County Defense Council.

Addressing himself to the citizens of the County, Mr. Graham said: "Many of you had Victory Gardens last year but this year we need double the amount to supply not only ourselves but also our armed forces, our worthy allies and the starving people of most of the world. Farmers are doing all they can to supply the full needs of the nation but they will not be able to furnish enough. So I believe it is the patriotic duty of everyone who has suitable ground to have a Victory Garden this year and every year as long as the emergency exists."

"An area 50 by 125 feet, well planned and taken care of, will provide for a family of five all the fresh vegetables needed for canning, storage and to be eaten fresh. Many amateurs can have just as good a garden as the professional if they follow the advice of an experienced gardener."

Lower Merion Starts State Title Drive By Romping Over Morrisville High, 57-18

Lower Merion High is off to a flying start in quest of its third straight state championship.

Coach Bill Anderson's mighty Maroon made mincemeat of a weak Morrisville High quintet, champion of the Lower Bucks County League, as it thundered into the second round of the District One playoffs in the PIAA tournament at Penn's Palestra Tuesday. The score was 57-18.

Lower Merion now will meet either Pottstown or Yeadon, who clash in a first round game Friday, in the windup of another doubleheader at the Palestra next Tuesday. Quakertown, Bux-Mont League king, wiped out a 1-12 deficit to best Hugh Wynn's Ridley Township passers, 30-22, to earn the right to meet the survivor of Friday's scrap between Chester and Bridgeport.

Coach Anderson expects Pottstown to eliminate Yeadon and believes the Trojans will provide stiff competition for his boys. He warns local fans that Pottstown

Dr. Bonn To Address Main Line Realtors

Dr. Moritz J. Bonn, eminent educational authority and economist, will speak at the monthly dinner of the Main Line Board of Realtors, March 8, at 6 p. m., at the Merion Cricket Club. Dr. Bonn, formerly a member of the faculty of Oxford University, England, and of the University of Munich, Germany, was special advisor to the Reparations Commission in Germany during the inflation period there and later was a delegate to the League of Nations.

Dr. Bonn's subject is "What Really Happens in Inflation." Reservations can be had by calling the office of Biddle N. Hunt, president, Cynwyd.

Plan to Observe Prayer Day Here

Will Meet at Baptist Church of Evangel For World-wide Event

The World Day of Prayer will be observed this year at the Baptist Church of the Evangel in Narberth on March 12.

There will be four prayer services at 10:30 a. m.; 12:30 p. m.; 1:30 p. m., and 3:30 p. m. Throughout the world on this first Friday in Lent similar observances will take place.

Local pastors will have charge of the periods of devotion. In the morning Mrs. Glen Atkins of the Belgian Congo will speak and in the afternoon, Mrs. W. C. Wagner of the Interdenominational Union of Philadelphia.

At the noon recess luncheon will be served by the Baptist Women's Association of Narberth.

Members of the local committee, who are planning the observance, are Mrs. Carlton Schugg, All Saints Episcopal Church; Fred Segermark, Lutheran Church; Mrs. Henry Frye, Methodist Church; Miss Marion Justice, Merion Meeting, and Mrs. R. B. Beer, Baptist Church.

Organize New Chapter Of Junior "Nells"

A chapter of Junior Nells has been organized by the Navy League Service under the auspices of its Wayne Branch. The new department is under the direction of Mrs. Edward H. Miller, Wynnewood, assisted by Mrs. William Wager, Penfield, Mrs. E. P. Bliss, Jr., Penn Valley, and Mrs. E. Harmon Friel, Cynwyd.

Girls from 14 to 20 may register at Wayne Tuesdays and Thursdays between 2 and 5 p. m. and Saturdays between 10 a. m. and 1 p. m.

There will be sufficient good seed to meet all demands this Spring, although there may be a scarcity of some varieties. I would suggest buying seeds early.

"Home vegetable growing will be definitely in fashion this year. We should and will have to conserve all types of food stuff and build up as large a reserve as is humanly possible. We can accomplish this through an intensive Victory Garden program."

Finest Two Coupons For Pleasure Driving

Ardmore War Price and Rationing Board held a hearing on February 25 to consider charges of violation of the ban on pleasure driving.

Mrs. Frances Robinson, Knox and Grenox rds., Wynnewood, and Miss Jane Wolf, 116 E. Montgomery av., were each fined two coupons.

The Board announced this week that all individuals who did not register for War Ration Book Two at the schools may register at the Board's office, 66 E. Lancaster av., Ardmore, on or after March 15. It will be necessary to present the same Declaration Form that was used last week and to bring War Ration Book One.

Heindel celebrated his participation in his third consecutive state tournament by thrilling the 2,000 onlookers with a snappy exhibition of sharpshooting. The L. M. leader hit the mark for eight field goals on just 18 shots, a remarkable average of 50 per cent, and converted five of seven foul tries for 21 points. Evans tallied 10 points and Art Campbell and Dick Whitting contributed eight and seven points, respectively.

Lower Merion had a good night on its shooting, getting 22 goals on 54 shots. An indication as to the effort put into L. M.'s defensive play is shown by the revelation that Morrisville had 69 shots at the basket but, fortunate for Coach Anderson's frame of mind, made only six of them.

A substitute, Pratt, led the losers with seven points.

Trap Blackmailer At Victim's Home

Faked Photograph Used In Unsuccessful Extortion Attempt

Charles Allen Moore, 30, 801 Biddle st., Ardmore, was held in $2,500 bail for court at a hearing on a charge of blackmail before Justice of the Peace Franklin P. Kromer Wednesday afternoon at the Lower Merion Township Building.

At the hearing, Moore acknowledged a confession signed by him revealing that he had attempted to extort $500 from Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Rebmam, 130 St. Georges rd., Ardmore.

Testifying at the hearing, Captain of Detectives William Shaffer, of the Lower Merion Police, stated that Moore had made up a composite photograph from a newspaper picture of Barbara Rebmam, 18-year-old Bryn Mawr College student, and a "compromising" magazine picture. He then sent the faked photograph to Mr. Rebmam, according to Captain Shaffer, and later telephoned the Rebmam residence several times demanding $500 as payment for not circulating copies of the picture among friends of the Rebmams.

With the assistance of Mrs. Rebmam, Lower Merion police laid a trap for the blackmailer. Mrs. Rebmam told Moore that she would have the money for him at her home on Monday afternoon. When he appeared, she gave him a prepared package, supposedly containing the $500, and he handed her an envelope containing a print and the negative of the faked picture. As Moore turned to leave, Detectives Charles Plumridge and William Bycroft arrested him.

Moore, until recently an employee of the Sun Ship Company, told police he was interested in photography and wanted the $500 to set himself up in business as a photographer. He said he had taken a correspondence course in photography.

Start Drive For New Victory Books

Quality Is Being Emphasized This Year, Says Keighton

"The 1943 Victory Book Campaign, the second annual drive for the collection of books for men in all branches of the service, is now underway in the entire country," announces Robert E. Keighton, head of this movement on the Main Line.

The purpose of the drive is to collect and deliver to the public libraries as many books as it is possible to accumulate. This year, however, emphasis is being placed on the quality of books both as to physical condition and readability—rather than on the attainment of a staggering over-all total.

Classifications of books desired for the increasing millions of our fighting men, soldiers, sailors, marines, coast guardsmen and merchant seamen, include current best-sellers and the more recently published (1930 to date) popular fiction and non-fiction; technical books published since 1935; humorous books; and small-sized editions of popular titles, both current and classical.

These books, after accumulation at all libraries throughout the country, will be distributed to camp and naval base libraries, to ship libraries, mobile libraries and all bases of field operations whether at home or abroad.

Emergency Relief Has Board Meeting

The Narberth Volunteer Emergency Relief held a board meeting at the home of Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, 208 Essex av., Narberth, on Tuesday.

It was reported that the members are busy on the project of calling on the parents of men in the service.

The annual reports of the chairman will be read at the next meeting on April 8.

HIGH NOTES

by
DAVID MALICKSON

Class of 1945 — Lower Merion High School

The students and faculty have been asked to contribute games to the Junior Red Cross in Ardmore.
These games will, in turn, be placed in the hands of the supervisors of the new Valley Forge hospital for the patients' enjoyment.

In a period of two weeks it is hoped that Lower Merion will have collected 50 Chinese checkers, 25 ring toss, 500 jigsaw puzzles, 50 dominoes and 25 parcheesi. Other desirable items include chess, checkers, cribbage boards and bingo.

It has also been stated by the Red Cross that any unbreakable ash trays will be most welcome.
The contributions are to be placed in a barrel at the main entrance of L. M. Won't you please help?
If you have any of the articles mentioned above, please give them to an L. M. student who will place them in the barrel.

The tin can collection at L. M. is still going strong. According to last Monday's statement from the tin can committee Edmund Mills, sophomore, has contributed the most tin cans — over 2,000. The sophomore class, as a whole, is well in front, leading the other two classes by a wide margin. Top honors for home-room contributions go to room 214.

The following letter was received this week:

"It is difficult to express the appreciation felt here in the Yard for civilian interest in supplying reading material for Service Men.

"Of the many books Mrs. Coates brought in yesterday, she tells me that most are contributions from Lower Merion High School. We are able not only to supplement our collection here but to send many cartons of books to many of the outgoing ships. Most of the ones your school has donated have already been called for by the L.
C. ships (smaller craft with perhaps 30 aboard).

"Very truly,
Juanita Gould,
Librarian of the Fourth
Naval District Library."
To date Lower Merion has contributed 300 books towards its total of 500. Books that you yourself enjoyed are the type wanted, other than that, there are no restrictions as to type of book. Fictions, novels, travel, biographies, etc., are wanted now.

During the month of March, 8-12 home-room presidents will accept requests for land for Victory Gardens by L. M. students. A possible charge of one dollar may be made for the plowing up and testing the soil. If enough students show interest in this project the seed possibly will be obtained wholesale. The home-room president will give the names of the students in his room wishing to obtain land to the student Victory Garden committee at L. M. This committee will in turn consult the Lower Merion Council of Defense in Ardmore, and then tell the student where and how large a plot the Council has laid aside for him.

Additional copies of the recent News letter, which is sent to L. M.

may be obtained at the Ardmore

CALLING THE TURN

By L. M. FORD

Suburban Sports Writer For
THE MAIN LINER

Hughie Wynn is the latest of Bill Anderson's proteges to make good as a coach in the Suburban Conference. Wynn tutored Ridley Towship High to the Section Four title and now has his boys in the thick of the PIAA District One playoffs.

Wynn, a guard on Lower Merion's 1931 quintet which was runners-up for the state championship, turned out the winner in his first year at the Ridley school, thereby duplicating the feat Jack Hinchey, another former Lower Merion star, who turned out championship teams at West Conshohocken and Glen-Nor in the two previous campaigns.

Hinchey resigned at Glen-Nor and took the Ridley Township job last Fall, but he was drafted by the Army before he had a chance to do any coaching and on his recommendation Wynn was given the job.

The success of Hinchey and Wynn is another great tribute to the work of Bill Anderson and his basketball wizardry. Soon schools everywhere desiring winning teams will be clamoring for Anderson's proteges as coaches.

The day is not too far distant when the "Anderson system" will be as famous in basketball as the Rockne and Warner systems in football.

We are glad to see that Haverford High is back in the Delaware County tournament, sponsored annually by the Chester Kiwanis club. This elimination contest has always been one of the high spots of the suburban court season and the campaign didn't appear to be complete when the Fords passed up the elimination last year.

The tournament gives added incentive to a team that fails to win a league title. It's usually a wide open, free-for-all affair and more than one team has salvaged some consolation from a miserable season by upsetting a couple favorites in this contest.

Haverford finished in a tie for second place in Section One and should have a good chance of reaching the finals. The Fords, victorious over Sharon Hill in their first last Tuesday, take on Prospect Park last place team in Section Four next Tuesday. If victorious in this game the Fords will meet either Collingdale or Ridley Park in the semi-finals next Thursday.
The finals are slated for Saturday, March 18.

If the Fords play at the top of their game, and beware of overconfidence they could win the title.

Lower Merion Five Unbeaten in League

Norristown Routed, 42-23, for 29th. Straight in Loop

Lower Merion High completed its second straight undefeated basketball season in the Section One League with a 42-23 conquest of Norristown on the latter's court last Friday night.

It was the Maroon's tenth league victory of the year and its 29th in a row in the circuit over a three-year span.

The Andersonmen finished four full games ahead of Norristown, Haverford and Upper Darby, who tied for second place.

Norristown gave the Andersonmen their toughest battle in their first meeting and provided stiff competition for the better part of a half last week. But the Eagles didn't have the stamina to keep up the pace and floundered badly in the closing periods after trailing at halftime, 17-10.

By chalking up four field goals and a pair of free throws, rangy, blond Don Evans added ten points to his season's total and clinched the Section One scoring diadem with 147 points. However, scoring honors of the game went to Captain Greer Heindel who tallied five goals from scrimmage and three from the foul line for 18 points.

Held even in field goals in their first meeting, Lower Merion outscored the Eagles, 17 to 9, from scrimmage and also had an 8-5 advantage at the foul line.

Dorothy Sparks Is Given Commission

Dorothy Graham Sparks, 403 Woodside av., Narberth, has been commissioned a third officer in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps.

She was selected for officer training on the basis of her ability and record of work as an auxiliary in the WAAC. Third officer is the equivalent of second lieutenant.

She will be assigned to an executive position in the WAAC Corps immediately taking over a non-combatant Army job releasing a soldier for combat duty, or participating in the expanded WAAC training program which eventually will replace a full field Army with trained womanpower in behind-the-lines Army jobs.

Small Increase in Juvenile Delinquency Here Says Shaffer

An increase of only .45 per cent in juvenile delinquency was noted in 1942 in Lower Merion Township, as compared to much higher figures for the nation as a whole, William Shaffer, Lower Merion captain of detectives, told members of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Tuesday noon.

The figures he quoted covered arrests of both boys and girls 18 years old and under.

Comparatively, he stated Philadelphia showed a 4.5 per cent increase in male delinquency and a 21 per cent increase in female delinquency, while an increase of 6.1 per cent was recorded for both boys and girls in Montgomery County.

Captain Shaffer quoted a recently published statement by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, to the effect that 55.7 per cent more girls under 21 were arrested last year than in 1941 and that the number of boys under 21 arrested last year increased 17.1 per cent over 1941 despite the removal of large numbers from civilian to military life.

fellows feel as good as I do about this wonderful remembrance. Many, many sincere thanks.

Edward U. Smith

Your package was received safe and sound on February 28th, 1943, after following me through many countries. There is not room on this postal to say more than "Thanks" but I assure you that word was never used more sincerely.

John Holland Hobaugh

There are no words that I know that would let you know just how wonderful it made me feel to receive the Christmas package from you, my friends of Narberth. All I can say is that it made me feel good all over, and I know that all of the boys from Narberth that are in the Service surely felt the same way.

Please tell Bob that what he wrote was just what we like to hear and that we over here know that Narberth is doing its part, and that we are darn proud of it, too.

The pictures that were with the package really brought back many pleasant memories, and I am looking forward to the day that I can again walk down Haverford av., and I do hope that will be soon for all of us.

I want to tell all of you that we are following through on our job over here and we think we are doing it well. So please don't worry about us, but keep the packages for Hitler and his bunch rolling over this way and we will be home soon.

Victory Gardeners Get Expert Advice From Conference Speakers

Adaptation Of Crops To Small Plots, Proper Cultivation, Use Of Lime Discussed; Victory Gardeners Told Not To Be Over-Ambitious

Advice covering all phases of gardening from plowing to the proper storage of surplus was presented by experts for the benefit of amateur Victory Gardeners at afternoon and evening sessions of a Victory Garden Conference held at Masonic Hall, Ardmore, Tuesday, under the auspices of the Philadelphia Branch of the National Gardeners Association and the Philadelphia Course Superintendents Association in cooperation with the Agricultural Extension Service of State College.

The speakers, all authorities by virtue of years of practical experience, were unanimous in expressing their approval of Victory Gardens and the importance of these projects in the war effort. All cautioned amateurs, however, against being overly ambitious and attempting more elaborate gardening than they were capable of.

Said Kenneth Hankinson, Pennington: Use lime, five pounds to 100 square feet of ground, if the land has not been limed in the last few years—this will probably make soil too sweet for potatoes and eggplant, but a Victory Garden is not the place for these two crops anyway.

Said John C. Kenealy, Lower Merion Township Tree Warden: Planning of Victory Gardens is vital—plant your rows north and south if possible to get the greatest benefit of the sun—follow instructions of experienced persons, as no ground must be wasted—a plot 25 by 50 feet will supply a family of four—have adequate paths through plot—follow a leaf crops with a root crop and follow that with a root crop, for instance, beans, then beets, then tomatoes—cultivate soil as soon as possible after a rain in order to conserve moisture and keep weeds down—respect the property of others and be sure to leave your garden plot clean at the end of the season.

Said J. M. Huffington, of State College: Grow the vegetables that give you the most food value for the space used—tomatoes top the list, greens are good and so are root crops—cucumbers and squash take up too much room and the bugs are too fond of them—start early and plow deep—use about 35 pounds of fertilizer to each 1000 square feet of ground—don't tempt peas in a small lot—leaf lettuce is an especially good crop to raise—sow carrots and beets in April and again in June, thin them out when they are young and use the thinnings to eat—harvest beans often for a better crop—tomatoes need a lot of moisture, therefore it is best to mulch these plants—wilt is most often responsible for unsuccessful tomato growing, so plant a wilt-resistant variety such as Pan America—plant your tomatoes in flats now, set them out early in May—remember in storing your harvest, next fall that a temperature of 32 to 50 degrees Fahrenheit must be maintained in the storage place.

Said Charles K. Hallowell, Philadelphia representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture: Don't overdo in your enthusiasm—have not yet gotten over the unnecessary plowing done in the last war—overdoing may cause soil erosion and waste—don't start too soon—don't attempt to economize by eliminating the use of fertilizer—the solution to successful Victory Gardening is for the experts to help the amateurs in each community.

Said Harry O. Wilcox, Media: Don't plant too early—don't waste seed by planting too close—one small package of seed is sufficient for a small plot—leaf lettuce, beets, carrots and cabbage are good crops for a Victory Garden—bush limas are easy to grow—soy beans are fine unless the rabbits get after them—plant corn only if you have lots of room.

Said H. E. Hodgkiss, Extension Entomologist: To protect asparagus against beetles, let one plant grow up uncultivated and this will attract the beetles away from the other plants.

Said J. W. L. Gatenby, Bryn Mawr: Start planting in April—best early crops are a short row of parsley, spinach, a few peas, onions and parsnips—turnips can be sown early in spring but rutabagas are hard to grow around here, as is cauliflower—if you must have corn, white corn is stronger and more resistant to pests than is yellow.

Said Fred Raine, Chestnut Hill (demonstrating with tools): Stand up as straight as possible when digging with either fork or spade don't try to pick up so much on one fork—that you have to bend way down to get leverage—that's a sure way to get Amateur's Ache.

Build a Ship!

A few weeks ago at one of Henry J. Kaiser's shipyards in Portland, Oregon, a telephone man made a speech. Then the chief operator of the shipyard's switchboard swung a bottle of champagne and at a signal sent by telephone a new Liberty ship slid into the Willamette River—the SS Alexander Graham Bell.

Statisticians at the shipyard estimate that it takes on the average 63,000 telephone calls to handle the details of building each ship they launch.

An aircraft factory says it takes 12,000 calls to build a bomber. No wonder telephone lines are crowded with calls these days. Please keep your calls to a minimum. War is on the wires. The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

Substitutes Available For Re-Roofing

WPB restrictions on the manufacture of certain building materials, delayed deliveries and scarcity of labor have affected the business of John A. Miller, Narberth roofer. But, like other businessmen, he is responding to the demands of an all-out war with temporary measures.

He advises that in re-roofing, substitute materials have been obtained to do necessary work for the duration.

Some of his suggestions are: "Have your furnace and pipes checked during the off season so there will not be delays when the rush season is on."

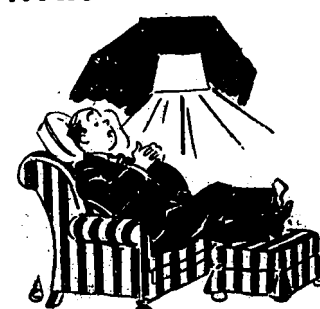

"Help us help you maintain your property by placing orders for work promptly. We will do our best to take care of your immediate needs."

Streamlined Insurance For War Time

Insurance companies are responding to war conditions by streamlining their policies, says William S. Howard, of Durbin & Howard, Narberth real estate and insurance firm.

Improved automobile policies, explains "Doc" Howard, have reduced rates to conform to the limited driving that is being done today. Also, another insurance feature is a policy that provides full medical aid for anyone hurt while riding in another's automobile. This meets the problem of the Share-Your-Car wartime program to conserve gas and rubber.
